

It's winter in Mammoth so the bears are nestled into their dens, fast asleep. Steve knows where they all are, but much of the rest of the town does not, which is for the best since the critters need their R&R.

We plan to make this Bear Blog the spot for all the latest news on your favorite bears, so plan to check back here often. Once spring hits things won't be so quiet and there will be lots to blog about as the bears wake up and begin wandering throughout town once again.

Until then, explore the new site and let us know what you like, don't like, and hope to see in the future.

Here's to coexistence!
